AFFAIRS OF THE WEEK

The Jenkins home was the scene of a pretty children's party Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. E. E. Jenkins entertained.

"Real Daughter" Is 101 Years Old

Mrs. Susannah Guseman Coburn, a "real daughter" and member of the Morgantown (West Va.) chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was 101 years old Monday, February 14. She was the recipient of many gifts and other attentions from members of her society, who celebrated her one-hundred-and-first birthday with even a greater demonstration of their pride in having her as one of their number. Mrs. Coburn is a daughter of Abraham Guseman, who enlisted from Harpers Ferry at the age of 17 years and served for seven years in the revolutionary war. He was accidentally killed in 1821 while constructing a grist mill near his home. Her husband was Samuel Coburn, who died many years ago. At present she lives with her granddaughter, Mrs. A. H. Jarrett. One daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Lazelle, lives at Greenville, West Virginia. Her grandchildren, who all live at Morgantown, are Miss Etta Coburn, William F. Coburn, John M. Coburn, Mrs. Atha Warren, Mrs. Anna Tyler and Mrs. Jarrett. Mrs. Coburn is in good health and, except for a slight deafness, retains the use of all her faculties.

tained thirty children at a Valentine dancing party, in honor of her three sons, Elmer, Irving and Harold. Valentine and hearts were effectively used in the decoration with clusters of red and white carnations. Mrs. Jenkins was assisted by Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., Mrs. J. J. Davies, Jr., and the Misses McEwan.

Mrs. Richard A. Keyes entertained six at a box party at the Salt Lake theater Saturday afternoon, followed by a luncheon at the New Louvre.

The Misses Blanche and Mahelle Casady entertained ten tables at a five hundred party at their home Saturday afternoon. Pink and white was the color scheme neatly carried out, with clusters of carnations and ferns. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Elsie Fredericksen and Gwendolyn Edwards. The prize was won by Miss Ethel Martin.

The Walker home was the scene of a charming bridge tea Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. G. R. Walker and Mrs. J. K. Walker entertained in honor of Mrs. Charles Hamilton of Cleveland, O., who with her son is spending a few weeks here with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Alf. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. S. H. Babcock and Miss Hunsaker. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. P. S. MacQuentin, Mrs. Sam Porter, Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. F. J. Fabian and Miss Hunsaker.

The King home was the scene of a charming tea Thursday afternoon, when Miss Ramola King received about seventy-five of her friends between the hours of 3 to 5, in honor of her cousin, Miss Houtz of Provo. Violets and lilacs of the valley were prettily carried out in the decorations. Miss King was assisted by a number of her young friends.
